

REVELATION: "Two Beasts"

Revelation 13:1-18

"The conflict in Heaven ended with Satan's defeat and his final overthrow from Heaven. In Revelation 13 we have a detailed description of his all-out effort in the earth just prior to his being cast into the bottomless pit. It is his last drive to defeat the program of God and establish his own kingdom. . He knows his time is short, so he comes in rage and fury to do as much damage as he possibly can. The two worst rebels in all of human history appear on the scene. They are called "beasts" because of the cruelty of their reign."
"The Book of Revelation" Lehman Strauss p.246

"God does not see him as man, made in the divine image, but as a wild animal, under the control of Satan. He is a man, but he is energized from hell. The final world empire will be rooted in all the previous empires and unite in one their evil and power. Added to the ferocity of these beasts will be Satan's own power, throne, and authority!"
"Be Victorious" Warren W. Wiersbe p. 124

". . .the beast is a composite of the previous world powers, like a leopard, a bear, and a lion. He combines in himself the abilities and characteristics of the leaders of the three world empires preceding the Roman: the swiftness of the leopard, the overpowering tyranny of the bear and the wild ferocity of the lion."

"The general character of the great tribulation however, is graphically portrayed in this chapter. It will be a time of absolute rule, and Satan will have his way. The ultimate in false religion will sweep the entire world in a manifestation of evil never before seen on the earth. The fact will be demonstrated beyond question that man is not able to solve his own problems and only God can bring righteousness and peace to the earth. The present attempts at unification of ecclesiastical and political power seem to the forerunner and preparation for this end-time situation."
